MERRY AND BLESSED CHRISTMAS

AND A HAPPY NEW YEAR
Message from our Supreme President

Michael J. Horvath

2018 is coming to a close, but before it does, we will celebrate the joyous celebration of the birth of our Lord and Savior Jesus on Christmas Day.

All through Advent Season the message we hear is one of preparing for the birth of Jesus Christ. While we are preparing for Christmas Day, we open our hearts and rejoice this happy and merry time of the year that is to come in many ways.

The lead up to Christmas Day is a little hectic and we wonder if we can get everything done. Somehow it happens! We found the extra hour in a day and the extra day in the week to make sure all is ready for Christmas Eve Vigilia and Christmas Day. It truly is amazing and magical. I now know how Santa Clause is able to do everything he does on Christmas Eve. I do believe!

Our rich Slovak customs and traditions make preparing for Christmas even more special with the decorating of our homes and Christmas tree. Then there is the baking of the delicious Christmas kolacky, and the singing of Christmas carols, that never get old no matter how many times they are sung.

Advent and Christmas is also the time of the year that gives us opportunity to do something good for others, since it is the season of giving. The simplest way to show you care is to call or send Christmas Cards to family and friends to let them know you are thinking of them and they are very important to you. Then if we have the ability, do charitable acts, since there are many that are not able to enjoy Christmas properly. We must remember saying “it is better to give than receive”. This will bring more joy and happiness to all.

Not everything at Christmas will be joyful, those empty seats and missing faces will bring thoughts of sorrow and Christmas’ past. However the joy in knowing they are celebrating the best Christmas they ever did in Heaven with family and friends will help restore the Christmas spirit in us.

As you continue to prepare for Christmas 2018 with the remaining days that are left, the Horvath family, myself, my wife Suzanne, our daughters, Heather, Megan and Jennifer and their families and the extended family send our best Christmas greetings and wishes all Slovak Catholic Sokol members and friends may all have a very Blessed and Joyous Merry Christmas and a Happy and Prosperous New Year.

Veselé Vianoce!
Štastný Nový Rok!
Zdar Boh!

The Word became flesh and made his dwelling among us. We have seen his glory, the glory of the one and only Son, who came from the Father, full of grace and truth.

John 1:14

I would first like to take this opportunity to wish all of our members a very Merry Christmas. This special time of year offers us the chance to observe and celebrate with the most important people in our lives. It is a time, first and foremost, to celebrate the birth of our Savior, Jesus Christ. Remembering the true meaning and significance of Christmas is sometimes overlooked amid all that is going on in our lives during this busy time. We need to remind ourselves that Christmas is about the celebration of the birth of Jesus Christ and not just another day off or holiday.

Christmas is also a wonderful time for our most respected Family traditions. We of Slovak ancestry have so many beautiful traditions related to the celebration of Christmas. When I sit down to break bread with my Family this Christmas, the sharing of the traditional Oplatky will absolutely be part of our feast. It has been part of our lives for as long as I can remember and will continue to be during this wonderful time of the year. I hope that many of our members will continue to promote these traditions because they truly do enhance our celebration of the Christmas season.

I would like to thank our Supreme President, Michael J. Horvath, our Board of Directors, and all our Supreme Officers for their dedication to the organization over the past year. I would also like to thank our Group Officers, Assembly Officers, and Wreath Officers for their continued efforts in promoting our wonderful Society. A fraternal benefit society like ours is really an extension of our own family. It is what our founders had in mind in 1905 and it is what our organization has become. Over the years, generations of our members have instilled in us a true family atmosphere at all of our fraternal events. We not only provide outstanding financial security with our insurance and annuity products, but we also offer so many fraternal benefits geared to our members. I ask you to continue your efforts and look for ways to not only increase membership, but to increase participation and frequency of your activities. It is who we are and what we do!

As the New Year approaches, it is a wonderful time to examine your insurance needs as well as the needs of your family and friends. If you are unsure of things, please take the time to look at our WIN/WIN Promotion in this issue or our website. Today, we have qualified life insurance and annuity representatives that can assist our existing and potential members in selecting the financial protection to help protect their future. You can help strengthen our wonderful organization while also protecting your family and friends. If you have any questions, please feel free to contact me at the Home Office or our Director of Sales, Albert J. Suess, and we would be glad to assist you.

On behalf of my beautiful wife, Maggie, my Son, Reid Thomas, my entire Family, the Board of Directors, and our Home Office, I would like to wish everyone a Merry Christmas and a blessed New Year! Peace be with you and Zdar Boh!
By opening our hearts, as the shepherds did who bravely followed them, we too can follow our faith bravely. At this time, let us look to the crib and pray to truly follow this mystery of Love.

In St. Paul’s letter to the Galatians, he writes: “Bear one another’s burdens, and so you will fulfill the law of Christ.” (Gal 6:2)

In his letter to the Thessalonians, we read that we are to “encourage one another and build one another up, just as you are doing.” (1Thes 5:11) Leo Buscaglia once said, “Too often we underestimate the power of a touch, a smile, a kind word, a listening ear, an honest compliment, or the smallest act of caring, all of which have the potential to turn a life around.”

In St. Paul’s letter to the Thessalonians, we read that we are to “encourage one another and build one another up, just as you are doing.” (1Thes 5:11) Leo Buscaglia once said, “Too often we underestimate the power of a touch, a smile, a kind word, a listening ear, an honest compliment, or the smallest act of caring, all of which have the potential to turn a life around.”

Saint Paul shows us three ways that we can love one another during Christmas time and throughout the year. We are to encourage them, help them with their burdens, and be a role model of forgiveness.

In his letter to the Thessalonians, we read that we are to “encourage one another and build one another up, just as you are doing.” (1Thes 5:11) Leo Buscaglia once said, “Too often we underestimate the power of a touch, a smile, a kind word, a listening ear, an honest compliment, or the smallest act of caring, all of which have the potential to turn a life around.”

In St. Paul’s letter to the Galatians, he writes: “Bear one another’s burdens, and so you will fulfill the law of Christ.” (Gal 6:2)

We are called to show them God’s Love by helping them through our trials and tribulations. Even when our hearts are broken, You provide a hope that tomorrow will be better. You are with me and my loved ones always.” – Anonymous

Saint Paul also writes that we should be “bearing with one another and, if one has a complaint against another, forgiving each other; as the Lord has forgiven you, so you also must forgive.” (Col 3:13)

When we forgive others we give them an example of how to forgive, just like Christ dying on the Cross for us. “Forgiveness is the final form of Love.” Reinhold Niebuhr

By opening our hearts, as the shepherds did who bravely followed their simple faith, we too can follow our faith bravely. At this time, let us look to the crib and pray to truly follow this mystery of LOVE.

PEACE,

Abbot Gary Hoover, OSB

Thoughts from our Supreme Chaplain, Rev. Andrew S. Hvozdovic

ARE YOU READY?

So here we are. Almost Christmas. Most of us have spent the last several weeks getting ready. Trees bought and decorated. Gifts bought and wrapped. Holiday parties. Family gatherings. Cookies left out for Santa. Cards and letters sent far and wide. All wonderful.

And here we are. In this place. Together with family and friends and neighbors. Which is as it should be. Together we sing the familiar carols. We light and hold our candles. We retell that age old story.

Silent Night. Holy Night. Wondrous star led thy light. With the angels let us sing. All beautiful. Take it in. But here’s the thing. For all our preparation and for all the beauty around us I can’t help but wonder if there is something more. Something we miss in all of our other planning and preparation. All of our decorations and gift giving. So much of what we spend time and energy and money on seems to have little to do with that simple, provocative, age old story we read together each year.

A story so familiar we almost know it by heart. Gentle Mary. Stoic Joseph. Shepherds in the field abiding. Angels from the realms of glory.

A story so layered over by tradition and Christmas card images and soften by the glow of candles that the meaning and the challenge the story presents gets lost in the pageantry of our celebration. You know the story, but maybe you miss the tension. Here it is. Caesar Augustus. Roman Emperor. Self proclaimed Son of God on one side. Jesus. Born in Bethlehem. Laid in a manger. Gospel proclaimed Son of God on the other side. King Herod in his palace and on his throne in Jerusalem.

Or, Mary and Joseph making their way from Nazareth to Bethlehem. The Roman legions who patrol countryside and streets to impose their peace. Or, the heavenly hosts with their proclamation of Peace on Earth. God’s good will to all. As we hear the story we are left to ask ourselves and then to decide.

What is this story really trying to say? Which side of the story will you chose as our own to guide and direct our living? And, because the Bible is never just about then, but also about now. And, never just about them, but also about you and me. And because I believe there is something more to Christmas than Santa and reindeer. I wonder…

What does all this mean for us today?

What does all this mean for you today?

With the world as it is?

With your life as it is?

So if any of this, on some level, rings true or tugs at your heart, let me ask. With everything else already neatly in place…

If there is something in this story about Peace on Earth which weaves itself around some deep longing within you, how is it you are going to get ready for that kind of Christmas?

If there is something in this story about everyone having a place and not just the rich and the powerful and something in the story which brings into focus how you imagine life and world might be. Should be. How is it you are going to get ready that kind of Christmas?

Group 17 fraternalists gathered on Friday evening, November 9 at Michael Alberini’s Restaurant in Youngstown, Oh. to enjoy a dinner honoring one of their own, Edith M. Babik who was honored as our 2018 Slovak Catholic Sokol Fraternalist of the Year. Edie, as she is affectionately known, has been active in our organization for many years. For the past 20 years, she has served as president of one of our most active lodges, Wreath 54 in Youngstown, Oh. In addition, she has served in various capacities within Group 17, “Rev. Francis Skutil.” There is hardly a Sokol fraternal or sporting activity which does not have the wholehearted support of Sister Edie. She has been a regular at our international bowling and golf tournaments. At our 49th International Golf Tournament in 2004, she was awarded the Frank S. Petruff Memorial Sports Award.

At the dinner, Supreme Secretary Scott T. Pogorelec, F.I.C. recalled Edie’s many activities and fraternal example which she has exhibited for more than a half century. Supreme President Michael J. Horvath then presented her with the commemorative plaque and check for $200 as a small token of our organization’s gratitude for her fine fraternal spirit and efforts. Also offering remarks were her daughter, Member of the Supreme Physical Fitness Board Nancy Kropolinsky, Supreme Physical Directress Kathleen S. Watkins and Chairperson of Supreme Auditors James G. Jerek. Other Supreme Officers in attendance included Supreme Assistant Director of Sports and Athletics Frank P. Laury and his wife, Member of the Supreme Physical fitness Board Julie M. Laury.

In her response, Sister Babik expressed thanks and gratitude to the Slovak Catholic Sokol for this honor and indicated that her efforts have been a labor of love in the best traditions of Sokol fraternalism. Her wonderful example has prompted her three daughters, granddaughter and great-grandson to be active in our organization which she first encountered in 1954 when she was enrolled as a Sokol member by her late spouse, William B. Babik. Our congratulations and fraternal best wishes go out to Sister Edie on this well-deserved tribute. While in fact an octogenarian, her spirit and efforts are an inspiration to all and certainly belie her years. She often notes that her fraternal activities keep her young. God bless you Edie and Zdar Boh!
Slovakia’s new ambassador to the United States, Ivan Korcok was welcomed by the American Slovak community at a dinner he hosted on the evening of November 16 at the Slovak Embassy in Washington, D.C. Earlier in the day, Mikulas Dzurinda, who served as Slovakia’s Prime Minister from 1998 to 2006 presented the annual Czech and Slovak Lecture at the Woodrow Wilson International Center in downtown Washington. Supreme Secretary Scott T. Pogorelec, F.I.C. and Supreme President Michael J. Horvath represented our organization at the gathering. In the top photo, Brother Pogorelec is shown offering remarks at the dinner while in the lower photo, former Prime Minister Dzurinda, center and Ambassador Korcok and his wife, Monica, are shown with some of the assembled Slovak fraternal dinner guests.

Prior to his appointment to Washington on September 1, Ambassador Korcok was the State Secretary of the Ministry of Foreign and European Affairs of the Slovak Republic. He is a native of Banska Bystrica in central Slovakia. He and his wife, Monica are the parents of two sons.

SLOVAK CATHOLIC SOKOL COLLEGE SCHOLARSHIP – TIPS FOR SUCCESS

I just wanted to take a moment to highlight the recent changes made to the Slovak Catholic College Scholarship Program. We will continue to use a completely on-line process as we have had few issues with the process over the past several seasons. With the help of our technical webmaster, we have redesigned the application process and you should find it to be much more user friendly. You will find the on-line application on our website at www.slovak-catholicsokol.org beginning November 1, 2018.

To be best prepared for this process a successful applicant should:

1. ANSWER ALL QUESTIONS ON THE APPLICATION.
   For example- if something does not apply to you- say N/A. If you are fully independent from your parents- as in, you are not claimed by them on their tax return, you should indicate that in the space asking for total parent income. Leaving this blank does not tell the whole story.

2. INCLUDE ALL REQUIREMENTS FOR THE APPLICATION - i.e. photo; transcript; essay
   Start the process for requesting your transcript NOW. I have found that sometimes this is the hold up for some applicants.
   - Transcripts- please note that “official transcript” means that you have requested it from your University or College and that is has been sent directly to me in a sealed envelope. We have not been as strict in the past on this issue, but began holding each applicant to this requirement last season and will continue to do so moving forward.

3. SUBMIT ALL REQUIRED ELEMENTS PRIOR TO THE DEADLINE.
   The application is clear and I just want to prevent a waste of your time and energy.
   Failure to include/complete any of the above items will result in the application being disqualified. To be honest, it is not easy for our committee when we need to disqualify applicants for simple yet important missing requirements.
   Lastly, apply for all college scholarships for which you qualify in order to give yourself the best chance at receiving something. There were several applicants who limited themselves to a particular scholarship. Competition was fierce for the larger $ scholarships, but there seems to be more opportunity with the other scholarship offerings.
   Not every applicant receives a scholarship every time they apply. If you have not received one in the past, I encourage you to apply again this year. Before submitting your application- take some time to review the bullet points above in order to assure that your application will be included for consideration. Good luck and Zdar Boh!

SS. Cyril and Methodius Parish in Sterling Heights, Mich. celebrated its centennial on Saturday, September 22 with an impressive liturgy and cultural program. The Most Rev. Robert Fisher, Auxiliary Bishop of Detroit, was principal celebrant of the Mass of Thanksgiving with the Most Rev. Milan Lach, S.J., Byzantine Catholic Eparch of Parma, Oh., the Rev. Libor Marek, pastor of the parish, priest-sons of the parish as well as area priests and deacons participating. The capacity-filled church included many former parishioners of the parish which was originally located on Detroit’s east side. Also participating were Slovak Dominican Sisters from Oxford, Mich. who formerly staffed both SS. Cyril and Methodius grade school and the St. Cyril High School.

Following the festive liturgy, a cultural reception and dinner was held at the Macedonian Cultural Center. The cultural program included the artistry of the well-known Sarisan Slovak Folk Ensemble, which was founded in the parish and the Tri-City Plus Band. A wonderful time was had by all. Many Sokols and Sokolky from Group 16 enjoyed the festivities.

On Sunday, November 18, the concluding centennial year Mass of the parish was celebrated with the Archbishop of Detroit, the Most Rev. Allen Vigeron as principal celebrant. Saint Nicholas

In some Slovakian towns and villages, St. Nicholas, or Svatý Mikuláš arrives in a horse drawn coach, along with an angel and the devil who rattles a chain. Waiting children fill the streets with singing and dancing. St. Nicholas has a present for each child. In some villages he visits each home. On St. Nicholas Eve all the children carefully polish their boots to leave on the windowsill or at the doorstep. In the morning they hope to find a nice surprise and not the dreaded coal. Some schools have a special "Mikul Mail," where children exchange greetings and small presents. There are small gifts for the teachers, too.

European Traditions that have made their way Into the American holidays

Candy Canes

These are really candy croziers (bishops staff), which are shaped like a shepherd’s hook, one of St. Nicholas’ symbols. All bishop’s carry staffs, hooked at the top like a shepherd’s crook, showing they are the shepherds who care for, or tend, their people.

Gift-giving in secret, during the night

Stockings are filled while children are sleeping. Nicholas did his gift giving secretly, under cover of darkness. He didn’t want to be seen and recognized as he wanted those he helped to give thanks to God.

Christmas stockings by the fireplace

In the story of Nicholas rescuing the poor maidens from being sold into slavery, the gold money, tossed in through the window, is said to have landed in stockings left to dry before the fire.

SLOVAK WORDS = SLOVENSKÉ SLOVÁ
By Dr. Michael Kopanic

Surprise your parents and grandparents by wishing them Veselé Vianoce, Merry Christmas, in Slovak. It would mean a whole lot to them.

MERRY CHRISTMAS = Veselé Vianoce [ve-selle vyah-knowts-saah]
BABY JEZUS = Ježiško [Yeah-zheesh-kow]
ANGEL = anjel [Awn-yell]
TREE = strom [strome, with a trilled “r”]
HOLIDAY = sviatok [svyaw-toke]
WISH = vinš [veensh]
GIFT = dar [daar]
NEW YEAR = Nový rok [know-vee roke]
PEOPLE LOSE CONTROL OVER THEIR PERSONAL DATA

Although loss of control over personal data has an impact on the majority of people in Europe, as many as 49 percent of Slovaks have no idea where in the on-line world their personal data are stored, according to the results of a survey published by Kaspersky Lab.

The figure is even more alarming for the whole of Europe with 64 percent of Europeans not having this information. The survey also showed that 17 percent of Slovak parents don’t know what personal data their children share on-line, while the Europe-wide figure is even 39 percent.

Some 80 percent of Slovaks (88 percent of Europeans) are interested in whether their data were used in an unlawful manner. Meanwhile, 67 percent of Slovaks (57 percent of Europeans) would be startled if their personal financial data were hacked. Only 31 percent of Slovak respondents trust large companies to take care of their data, while 27 percent of Slovaks believe that their personal data are safe on websites of social media.

Despite these findings, consumers do not take necessary steps to protect their data and a disquietingly high percentage of people fail to take even simple steps. One in six (16 percent) of Slovak internet users fail to secure their wifi network with a password, 28 percent of Slovaks have never updated protection of their wifi routers and 30 percent fail to protect their devices by using security software.

Firms and consumers take at least some measures to protect their data, however, their behaviour can result in the fact they’re doing it in vain. Firms that thoroughly protect their personal data have no chance to prevent users from acting irresponsibly if they, for example, use the same password for several accounts, share passwords with other persons, use simple passwords or neglect protection of routers they use.

LAJCAK FAVORITE AMONG POTENTIAL PRESIDENTIAL CANDIDATES

Had a presidential election taken place in November, the highest number of people would have voted for Foreign Affairs Minister Miroslav Lajcak, who would have garnered 32.3 percent, TASR learnt from Focus agency, which carried out the poll on a sample of 1,012 respondents between November 10-14.

Next came scientist Robert Mistrik (11.7 percent) and Supreme Court judge Stefan Harabin (10 percent). The presidential election will be held in the spring. The official candidates aren’t yet known.

Leader of the coalition Most-Hid party Bela Bugar would have gained 9.2 percent, followed by chairman of the far-right LSNS party Marian Kotleba with 8.9 percent, Ordinary People (OLaNO) parliamentary caucus head Veronika Remisova on 7.9 percent, and Frantisek Miklosko on 6.3 percent.

Zuzana Caputova would have been selected by 4.1 percent of the people polled, Eduard Chmelar by 3.3 percent, and We Are Family MP Milan Krajniak by 3 percent. No other potential candidate would have garnered more than 1-percent support.

SLOVAK GOVERNMENT READY TO SUPPORT KIA’S INVESTMENT IN 4.0 INDUSTRY

The Slovak Government is ready to support Kia Motors Slovakia’s investments in the field of 4.0 industry and in cars with alternative fuels, Economy Minister Peter Ziga said following his meeting with Kia’s president and chief executive officer Dae Sik Kim on Wednesday, November 21.

According to Ziga, Kia Motors Slovakia with its supplier network is one of the pillars of the Slovak economy and one of its most important employers. “The Government praises the contribution of this significant investment and is ready to discuss supporting Kia’s further activities, including investment in development, added value and increased competitiveness,” said Ziga.

Dae Sik Kim appreciated a possibility to hold personal talks with the economy minister on the current situation in Kia Motors Slovakia. “This year we introduced three new bodywork versions of the Kia Ceed model in order to ensure our competitiveness in Europe. We also discussed the challenges that the automotive industry in Slovakia is currently facing, as well as technologies of the future, alternative drives and automation and robotisation of production,” he said.

Kia Motors Slovakia is continuing its investment activities also this year, planning to invest almost 200 million Euro ($229 million) in total. “In addition to investments related to launching production of new models, it has opened its own healthcare centre directly in the plant’s premises. Employees can fully use modern devices to prevent occupational diseases. We plan to continue investing also after 2019 and develop our activities in Slovakia, as well as in Europe,” stated Kia’s spokesman Jozef Bace.

Kia Motors Slovakia is the only Kia Motors Corporation production plant in Europe. It was built between 2004 and 2006. The production of cars as well as engines was launched in December 2006. The carmaker currently employs more than 3,800 people in Slovakia. Since it has launched production in Slovakia, it has built more than 3.1 million cars and 4.7 million engines.

If there is something in this story about God with us which rings true; which tugs at your spirit.
God with us.
Not God over us.
Not God judging us.
Not God condemning us.
God with us in this wonderful, complex, sorrowful, joyful thing we call life.
God with you and me.
God with us and them.
God here.
God now.
Just as you are.
Just as we are.
Just as they are.
So, if there is something about this story…Something about Christmas. Which is about more than trees and gifts and carols and cards. Then let me ask… What are you doing to get ready for that kind of Christmas?

Minutes of the Annual Meeting of Group 17, “Rev. Francis Skutil”

asked for a report on the children’s Christmas party held in 2017 and plans for this year’s event scheduled for December 2. He indicated that the Group had one scholarship recipient for 2018, Maria Gonda. Congratulations and best wishes go out to Sister Edith M. Babik on her selection as 2018 Slovak Catholic Sokol Fraternalist of the Year. He reminded the delegates that the 33rd quadrennial convention was set for August 3-6, 2019 and hoped that all Group 17 lodges would be represented.

Regarding the children’s Christmas party, it was agreed that the Group and the Assembly and Wreaths would help with the costs. On a motion by Sister Nancy Kropilinsky, seconded by Sister Mary Olexa, $100 was donated to our Sokol Museum fund in memory of Brother Polchak, who had been active in the Group until his death in 2017. With no further business, the 2018 annual meeting was adjourned by on a motion by Brother Ken Hlebovy, seconded by Sister Virginia Bartos. A closing prayer for our deceased members brought the meeting to a close. Zdar Boh!
Respectfully submitted,
Carol Gonda, Group 17 Secretary

While most Catholics consider the Christmas feast the singular most enriching event in the Church year, for Slovak Catholics, Christmas centers around the celebration of “Stedry Vecer” the bountiful evening, the Christmas eve Supper.

Many of the Slovak Christmas traditions, have been brought to America by generations of immigrants from Slovakia over the past more than 125 years. Many of these traditions continue to be cultivated by their descendants in Slovak American homes.

The Christmas eve supper, which begins with the appearance of the first star, is filled with benevolence and mystery. With roots in the Passover supper of the Old Testament, the meal is filled with ritual and meaning. Each of the various regions of Slovakia have particular culinary specialties.

In some localities, it is the custom to set the table cloth over clean straw; in others straw is laid upon the floor. This reminds the family that the Christchild was bedded upon straw in a manger.

The father and mother come to the table with a lighted candle, carrying holy water and honey. Reaching their places, good wishes and greetings are extended, offering a kind of festive toast. The candle, which gives light and warmth, is the symbol of Christ, the light of the world.

Before serving the meal, the mother sprinkles holy water on the table and the rest of the house, that the blessing of God might rest on them. The father takes a little honey and makes a small sign of the cross on the foreheads of all present. It reminds all to keep Christ in our thoughts and to live and work so that harmony and pleasant fellowship might sweeten our lives.

The meal begins with the Oplatky, unleavened wafers imprinted with the scenes of the holy birth. Slovaks and Poles alike share this tradition. With snowbound conditions common on both sides of the Tatra Mountains, the Oplatky were blessed by the village priest so that if the faithful were not able to make it to church for Midnight Mass, this symbol of Christ and the Eucharist might serve as their Christmas eve spiritual nourishment.

A soup of tart quality is now enjoyed. The soup is made of sauerkraut brine and dried mushrooms. It continues the Old Testament Exodus theme of recalling the bitterness of life without Christ.

Fish is generally enjoyed, since Catholics in eastern Europe continue to observe a strict fast and abstinence on the vigil of Christmas. Next comes “opekance-pupacky-bobalky” much like tiny biscuits made of yeast-leavened dough, sweetened with honey and sprinkled with a pleasant preparation of poppyseed. The use of poppyseed recalls a pagan tradition in which poppyseed was strewn at the portal in order that the evil spirits might be occupied with picking up each morsel and thus would not enter the house.

Other foods eaten include dried prunes, pears, apples, nuts and St. John’s bread “Carob,” A potato pancake type of specialty known as “Lokse” is also enjoyed. The meal concludes with traditional Slovakian pastries, known as “Kolace” or strudel-like rolls made with walnuts, poppyseed, lekvar(prune) or cheese. Red wine completes the evening’s feasting.

In addition to a place for every member of the family, a place is left vacant for the welcome traveler. In the rural villages of Slovakia, a shepherd would call from house to house making his Christmas wish or “Vins” to all in the household:

On this glorious feast of the birthday of Christ our Lord,

I wish you from God, good health, happiness and abundant blessings. May it be yours to enjoy comfort from your children, salvation for your soul, the kingdom of heaven after death, and for the family’s welfare may you have whatever you ask of God.

The music and joyous spirit of the Slovak people adds much to the celebration of a truly “bountiful evening”!

2 whole large eggs

Heat milk and butter over low heat in a saucepan. Heat it just enough to melt butter then remove the pan from the heat and set aside.

In a large mixing bowl combine dry ingredients (flour through yeast). Add milk and butter to the dry ingredients. Then add eggs. Mix well and knead till dough is no longer sticky. Cover the bowl and let the dough rest for 10 minutes. Punch it down and let it rise till doubled in size.

Preheat oven to 400 F. Pull off dough into walnut-sized pieces. Roll into balls and place the balls on sheet pans lined with parchment paper.

Bake at 400 F for 12-15 minutes. Remove pans from the oven and put baked balls into a colander. Pour a small amount of hot water over the balls then put them in a large bowl. Drizzle with honey and sprinkle with poppy seeds as desired. Toss and serve.

SAUERKRAUT SOUP – KAPUSTNICA

32 oz. Sauerkraut, chopped
2 ½ qts Chicken broth
Black peppercorns (to taste)
4 Bay leaves
Salt to taste
2 cups dried mushrooms
¾ lb Hungarian style dry paprika sausage
¾ lb smoked ham
2 tbsp vegetable oil
1 large onion, finely chopped
2 tbsp all-purpose flour
2 tsp sweet Hungarian paprika
1 cup water
1 cup sour cream

Add first six ingredients to a pot and bring to a boil. Add sausage and whole piece of ham. Let simmer over medium heat for an hour and a half. After an hour and a half, remove the meat and set aside. Remove the bay leaves and discard.

Fry the onion until clear, then sprinkle with flour and paprika while stirring for one minute. Gradually stir in the water with a fork to prevent lumps from forming. Bring this mixture to a boil and allow it to thicken. Once thickened, add to the soup pot.

Cube ham and sausage and stir into the soup pot once again. Bring to a boil and cook everything for another 10 minutes.

ORECHOVNIK (SLOVAK NUT ROLL)

FOR THE DOUGH:
2 cups all-purpose flour
2 tbsp sugar
1 tsp salt
2 egg yolks, beaten (set aside the egg whites)
½ cup butter (1 stick)
½ cup cold milk
½ tsp vanilla
1 package dry yeast

FOR THE NUT FILLING:
¾ lb ground walnuts (about 3 cups whole walnuts)
¾ cup sugar

FOR ASSEMBLY:
2 egg whites (saved from dough)
2-3 drops vanilla, divided
½ cup applesauce

In a small bowl, mix the vanilla and milk together then dissolve yeast in the mixture. Sift the flour, sugar and salt into a large bowl. Cut the butter into the dry ingredients (like you would for a pie crust) until the dough resembles a course meal. Add the beaten egg yolks (setting aside the egg whites, covered, in the refrigerator) and the yeast mixture. Mix together briefly with a wooden spoon, then knead with your hands against the sides of the bowl until everything is blended together and the dough is no longer very sticky. Alternatively, you can use an electric mixer with a dough hook. Form the dough into a ball, cover in plastic wrap, and refrigerate overnight.

When you are ready to put together the nut rolls, prepare the filling: mix together the ground walnuts, sugar, and brown sugar. Divide evenly into two bowls and set aside.

Remove your dough from the refrigerator; divide in half and place on a floured work surface. One at a time, roll out each piece of dough to a 14” x 13” rectangle. Turn the dough so that one of the longer edges is facing you. Mix your reserved egg whites with a drop of vanilla. Using a pastry brush or your fingers, brush some of the egg white mixture over the top of the dough. Then smear about ¼ cup applesauce (or a little less) over the dough to keep the nut roll moist. Sprinkle one of the bowls of nut filling over the dough, leaving about a 1-inch margin on each side of the rectangle but the far end, where you can leave a little less room (about ½-inch margin).

Start rolling the dough away from you, into a spiral, keeping the spiral firm and tight. When you’ve made several turns, fold the 1-inch side margins inward, and then continue to roll all the way up, pinching the seam once rolled. Place the nut roll, seam down, on a parchment-lined or lightly greased baking sheet. Using a pastry brush or your fingers, use just enough milk combined with a drop or two of vanilla to brush the top of the rolls (this will make the rolls nice and shiny). Repeat the process with remaining dough.

Preheat oven to 350 F. Let the rolls rise for 30 minutes, then bake for 30-35 minutes until the rolls are a deep tan color. To serve, cut the nut rolls crosswise into slices.
Vianočná poľadnica z roku 1843.

Zvyk posielat' k Vianociam poľadnice čoskoro prenikol do Ruska, Francúzska, Nemecka a ďalších krajín. V druhej polovici 19. storočia sa poľadnice posielali často vyzdobené gorálkami, kúsikmi pestrofarebných tkanín, perím, sklenenými črepinkami a podobne. K zasneženým krajínkám, chalúpkam a vyzdobeným vianočným stromčekom pribudli neskôr duchovné a kresťanské motívy, betlehemy, jasličky, vyobrazenia anjelov, malého Ježiša v náručí Panny Márie a podobne.

VIANOČNÉ ZVYKY NA SLOVENSKU

ŠUPINY Z KAPRA, ALEBO PENIAZE – vložili sa pod obrus na štedrovečernom stole a mali zabezpečiť, aby sa peniaze v rodine počas nasledujúceho roka rozmnožili a pribudlo ich. Mnoho ľudí si šupinu následne dáva do peňaženky.

MED – tento tradičný sladký produkt mal v náväznosti na svoju chuť zabezpečiť dobrotu, hojnosť, či príjemnosť. Zabezpečovať mal to, aby ste celý budúci rok boli dobrí a milí. Mnoho rodín si ešte pred štedrou večerou robí z medu krížik na čelo, čo symbolizuje požehnanie v spojitosti s dobratou.

JABLKO sa po večeri rozkrojilo priečne na polovicu. Ak bol jadrovník v tvare hviezdy, znamenalo to pre rodinu šťastie a zdravie, no ak bol jadrovník v tvare kríža, rodinu podľa tradície čakala choroba, alebo dokonca smrť. Jabĺčko sa potom rozkrojilo na toľko kúskov, koľko členov rodiny bolo pri stole, čo symbolizuje ucelenosť rodiny.

OPLÁTKY – symbolizujú, že kresťania pristupujú k svätému prijímaniu. Keďže Vianoce sú kresťanským svätcom, telo Ježiša prestavuje práve oplátku, ktorá sa je na štedrý deň s medom a cesnakom. Dievčatám robili rodičia krížiky na čelo, aby boli krásne a deťom, aby poslúcha.

HISTÓRIA VIANOČNEJ POHLADNICE

Pripravíme si papierové košíčky. Kávovou lyžičkou nalejeme do košíčka čokoládu, potom kávovú lyžičku náplne, uhladiť náplň a znova kávovú lyžičku čokolády. Ozdobíme olúpanou mandľou, orechom alebo sušeným ovocím.
