SLOVAK CATHOLIC SOKOL INTERNATIONAL
GOLF WEEK – AUGUST 10TH – 16TH
Message from our Supreme President

Michael J. Horvath

How was everyone’s summer? Covid-19 did change our normal summer to one that required us to take precautions in mostly everything we did from vacation, shopping, eating out and many other ways of life. One activity missed was attending in person Mass. Technology saved the day giving us the ability to attend Mass virtually via Face Book. What we did this summer is now history, and we will be able to explain to future generations, what the summer of 2020 was like. We have to continue to pray that we overcome and conquer Covid-19, soon.

The hot summer of 2020 is ending as it does every year with Labor Day. This Labor Day should have a special meaning since all who worked and labored did more this year as they stepped up to face the Covid-19. They were also asked to do more to keep all of us as safe as possible and provide us with the daily items we needed to live our lives as normal as possible. We have to thank the many essential workers, those who we already knew were essential and the newly identified essential workers. Also we recognize the workers who were laid off or lost their jobs because of Covid-19. As they have to adjust their lives to this situation, it is with hope they will return to their jobs or find a new and better job in the near future.

Our Society faced the same challenges over the summer as other businesses and individuals did this summer. The biggest disappointments were canceling our fraternal activities since they bring together Sokol members from all of our Groups to partake in fraternalism and Sokol life. Once a situation is out of anyone’s control, thinking out of the box is a must so that some form of continuity and normalcy can exists. All members should again be proud of the effort made by the Supreme Physical Fitness Board to figure out something to replace our successful International Golf Tournament. The Board came up with the Slovak Catholic Sokol International Golf Week which opened up any type of golfing that members wanted to do and to post their fraternal efforts on the Society’s Face Book page. It proved to be a success and I want to thank everyone who helped keep the Slovak Catholic Sokol golfing spirit alive.

Each year all fraternals are asked to recognize one of their own as their Fraternalist of the Year (FOTY). I ask all Groups, Assemblies and Wreaths to fill out a Fraternalist of the Year application and send it in to the Home Office. Only you know who that member is who supports the Slovak Catholic Sokol ideals, does outstanding work for the community and helps with their Catholic faith and the efforts of the Church. Let us recognize our member, so that every member knows who this person is and given the honor they deserve.

The Slovak Catholic Federation is requesting articles from individuals on all things Slovak, Catholic, faith, culture and heritage, the arts, and personal essays or other topics the writer wishes to share with the readers for their 2021 edition of The Good Shepherd. Anyone interested in writing an article is encouraged to do so and can send it to Sister Barbara Sable, SSCM, at Villa Sacred Heart, Danville, PA 17821 or barbarasable@hotmail.com. After the deadline of December 31, 2020 is reached all articles received will be reviewed and those selected will be printed in the Good Shepard publication for everyone to read.

This is the time of the year all Slovak Catholic Sokol Groups are asked to hold their annual meetings. It is important that every Group hold an annual meeting, since our By Laws require it and all members should know what their Group has done in the past year. It also offers all members to come together for the betterment of the Society and allow members to seek office to help the Society continue its purpose and existence. Remember all Groups should announce the date, location and time of their annual meeting in the Falcon. Any Group that needs help in holding their annual meeting call me or our Supreme Secretary, Scott T. Pogorelec, F.I.C. for assistance.

Our Director of Sales, Brother Albert J. Suess, Jr, F.I.C. has developed a great campaign that all Groups and members will want to become involved with. The campaign is “Drive to 50” a theme in cor-

For I consider that the sufferings of this present time are not worthy to be compared with the glory which shall be revealed in us. Romans 8:18

Greetings from the Home Office! I hope you all are doing well while adjusting to this unorthodox time we are living in. September is usually a time when the kids go back to school and fall schedules begin to fill up quickly. Unfortunately, the year 2020 has not cooperated with those plans as we have seen remote learning schedules being prepared for the kids and many events being postponed. The important thing is, Sokols take things in stride and make the best out of every situation!

The cancellation of our International Bowling and Golf Tournaments was a tough pill to swallow. But our Physical Fitness Board persevered and tried to “make the best out of a situation.” You can tell by the smiling faces in this issue that everyone enjoyed participating in the Slovak Catholic Sokol International Golf Week. Golfers across the United States and Canada came together in their local areas and enjoyed the game of golf and time with each other. This solidified the well known fact that we are all Sokols and take things in stride and make the best out of every situation!

Finally, I know that we are entering the time of year for our Annual Group Meetings. If you are safely able to meet in person and take the proper CDC and State recommended precautions, then please do so. Some Groups have even mentioned having an outdoor meeting, which sounds quite nice during the Fall Season! If you are unable to meet in person, please consider holding your meeting virtually through Zoom, GoToMeeting, or another platform. We are asking everyone to think outside the box this year. I know that we can do it together!

Until next time, stay strong, stay safe, and stay POSITIVE!

Zdar Boh!
The past six months have been a change from the normal society we are used to, but with adjustments things have started to get to a state of new normal. Since May my brothers and I have been preparing for the International golf tournament which was expected to be held August 14th-16th, we built a pully system to open and close a tarp which we would practice hitting golf balls against in our backyard. It was with sad news that the golf tournament was canceled and our boarders remained closed not allowing us Canadians to join in the event. Therefore, the alternative solution was created and International Golf Week was born! All week-long from August 10th-16th pictures were posted on the Slovak Catholic Sokol social media (Facebook and Instagram page) of the groups participating in this golf event.

There was a total of 8 Groups that participated in the event: Group: 1, 3, 4, 5, 7, 14, 17 & 19. There was various 4somes from each group at various golf courses throughout their city to ensure social distance protocols were followed but everyone could still participate. The turnout was better than expected and I was so thrilled to see all the pictures of everyone participating, it looks like everyone had a great time. Although this was not the ideal golf weekend we had all hoped for it was fun to be able to see our fellow local group members again.

The International Golf Tournament of 2021 will be held at Treasure Lake and I can’t wait to finally participate in the event I have heard nothing but good things about. Stay safe everyone and hope to see you all soon!

Celebrating The 50th International Slet

The Slovak Catholic Sokol will be reaching a significant milestone within the SOKOL World – We will be hosting and presenting our 50th International Slet (Gymnastic and Track and Field Meet).

To help celebrate this Golden Occasion we have created the DRIVE TO 50 Sales CAMPAIGN. This campaign is designed to benefit and reward our membership, our groups, and recommenders.

Benefiting Membership & Growth

For more than 115 years our society has provided our members with sound financial protection and outstanding fraternal benefits. As proud member of the SOKOL it is quite easy to expound upon and share the qualities of membership. This is an excellent opportunity to share our excellent offerings with friends and family and get rewarded for it.

Not everyone is born a salesman or comfortable selling life insurance or annuities. Today, we have qualified life insurance and annuity representatives that can assist our existing and potential members in selecting the financial protection to help protect their future.

A supply of SOKOL “DRIVE to 50” Lead Cards will be available to all Group/Assembly/Wreath Officers for distribution. Officers are asked to distribute SOKOL “DRIVE to 50” Lead Cards to existing Members who want to recommend someone to become an insured Benefit Member. SOKOL “DRIVE to 50” Lead Cards are also available for completion and submitting on the SOKOL Web Site www.scslife.org. Mail all completed Referral Lead Cards to the Sales & Marketing Office:

Rev. Andrew S. Hvozdovic
A HISTORY OF SLOVAKIA’S TRIBUTE
TO OUR LADY OF SORROWS

Our Lady of the Seven Sorrows (Sviatok Sedembolestnej Panny Márie) is a non-working holiday in Slovakia celebrated on 15 September. It is a Catholic holiday devoted to the Virgin Mary in her incarnation as Our Lady of the Seven Sorrows, Patroness of Slovakia.

The main event of the holiday is celebrated at the National Basilica in the small town of Šaštín-Stráže in Western Slovakia. While 15 September became a state holiday in 1993 (first observed in 1994), the pilgrimage to Šaštín traces its roots back to 1564 when the wife of a Hungarian nobleman commissioned a statue of the Sorrowful Mother in thanks for an answered prayer. This statue, the Šaštín Pieta, has become the ritual object of attention for pilgrims since that time.

When Empress Maria Theresa noticed the large number of pilgrims coming to visit the statue, she requested that a larger church be built to house the Pieta. In 1764, with Maria Theresa in attendance, the cathedral in Šaštín was consecrated.

In 1927, Pope Pius XI first proclaimed Our Lady of the Seven Sorrows as Patroness of all of Slovakia, and in 1964, Pope Paul VI strengthened this proclamation by designating the Šaštín cathedral devoted to her as a Basilica Minor, the first basilica in Slovakia. In his 1995 visit to the country, Pope John Paul II added a golden crown to the statue.

Today, the pilgrimage to Šaštín is the main event of the national holiday. In addition to the top clergy in Slovakia, members of the Národná Rada SR (the Slovak parliament) and even the President of Slovakia are often in attendance. Typically, the event is broadcast on several television channels so that people may participate in the event without actually attending. In 2010, an estimated 20,000 pilgrims showed up for the 15 September event.

The seven sorrows are:

1) A sword of sorrow would pierce Mary’s heart
2) Fleeing to Egypt to avoid the King's murderous plot
3) Jesus' parents look for him in Jerusalem
4) Mary witnessing Jesus’ crucifixion
5) Mary’s encounter with Jesus on route to Golgotha
6) Jesus’ body placed in his mother’s arms
7) The burial of Jesus

Our Mother of Sorrows, patroness of Slovakia, pray for us.

Inscription above the altar inside the Šaštín Basilica reads:

Father, as your Son was raised on the cross, His mother Mary stood by Him, sharing His suffering. May she, who is also our spiritual Mother and Patroness in heaven, help us to find renewed strength at the cross of Christ and so to come to share in His rising to new life, where He lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God forever and ever. Amen

Prayer in honor of Our Lady of Sorrows

Financial Secretary
APPLE CRISP
1 cup all-purpose flour
3/4 cup rolled oats
1 cup packed brown sugar
1/2 cup butter, softened
4 cups chopped peeled apples
1 cup sugar
2 tablespoons cornstarch
1 cup water
1 teaspoon vanilla extract
Vanilla ice cream, optional

Preheat oven to 350°. In a large bowl, combine the first 4 ingredients. Cut in butter until crumbly. Press half into a greased 2-1/2-qt. baking dish or a 9-in. square baking pan. Cover with apples. In a small saucepan, combine the sugar, cornstarch, water and vanilla. Bring to a boil; cook and stir 2 minutes or until thick and clear. Pour over apples. Sprinkle with remaining crumb mixture. Bake 60-65 minutes or until apples are tender. Serve warm, with ice cream if desired.

CAULIFLOWER SOUP
1 medium head cauliflower, broken into florets
1 medium carrot, shredded
2 1/2 cups water
2 teaspoons chicken bouillon or 1 vegetable bouillon cube
3 tablespoons butter
3 tablespoons all-purpose flour
3/4 teaspoon salt
1/8 teaspoon pepper
2 cups 2% milk
1 cup shredded cheddar cheese
1/2 to 1 teaspoon hot pepper sauce, optional

In a Dutch oven, combine the cauliflower, carrot, celery, water and bouillon. Bring to a boil. Reduce heat; cover and simmer for 12-15 minutes or until vegetables are tender (do not drain). In a large saucepan, melt butter. Stir in the flour, salt and pepper until smooth. Gradually add milk. Bring to a boil over medium heat; cook and stir for 2 minutes or until thickened. Reduce heat. Stir in the cheese until melted, adding hot pepper sauce if desired. Stir into the cauliflower mixture.

Kitchen Tips
Feel free to use 2-1/2 cups of chicken or vegetable broth instead of water and bouillon.

CREAMY COLESLAW
1 package (14 ounces) coleslaw mix
3/4 cup mayonnaise
1/3 cup sour cream
1/4 cup sugar
3/4 teaspoon seasoned salt
1/2 teaspoon ground mustard
1/4 teaspoon celery salt

Place coleslaw mix in a large bowl. In a small bowl, combine the remaining ingredients; stir until blended. Pour over coleslaw mix and toss to coat. Refrigerate until serving.

Kitchen Tips
Greek yogurt can be used instead of sour cream for less fat and more protein. If you like your coleslaw tart, add 1/4 cup vinegar or lemon juice or maybe even a julienned Granny Smith apple.

PUMPKIN BREAD
1 2/3 cups all-purpose flour
1 1/2 cups sugar
1 teaspoon baking soda
1 teaspoon ground cinnamon
3/4 teaspoon salt
1/2 teaspoon baking powder
1/2 teaspoon ground nutmeg
1/4 teaspoon ground cloves
1/2 cup canola oil
1 1/2 cups water
1/2 cup chopped walnuts
1/2 cup raisins, optional

Preheat oven to 350°. Combine first 8 ingredients. Whisk together eggs, pumpkin, oil and water; stir into dry ingredients just until moistened. Fold in walnuts and, if desired, raisins. Pour into a greased 9x5-in. loaf pan. Bake until a toothpick inserted in center comes out clean, 65-70 minutes. Cool in pan 10 minutes before removing to a wire rack.

LEMON-PARSLEY BEAN SALAD
2 cans (15 ounces each) red kidney beans, rinsed and drained, or 3 cups cooked kidney beans
1 can (15 ounces) chickpeas, rinsed and drained, or 1 1/2 cups cooked chickpeas
1 small red onion, diced
2 stalks celery, sliced in half or thirds lengthwise and chopped
1 medium cucumber, peeled, seeded and diced
3/4 cup chopped fresh parsley
2 tablespoons chopped fresh dill or mint
3 cloves garlic, pressed or minced
1/4 cup olive oil
1/4 cup lemon juice (about 1 1/2 lemons)
Small pinch red pepper flakes

In a serving bowl, combine the prepared kidney beans, chickpeas, onion, celery, cucumber, parsley and dill (or mint). Make the lemon dressing: In a small bowl, whisk together the olive oil, lemon juice, garlic, salt and pepper flakes until emulsified. Pour dressing over the bean and vegetable mixture and toss thoroughly. Serve immediately for the most flavor, or let it marinate in the refrigerator, covered, for a couple of hours or longer. Leftovers should keep well, covered and refrigerated, for several days. If necessary, wake up leftovers with a little sprinkle of salt or drizzle of lemon juice.

The times when someone could have taken Stefanik from the Slovaks have passed; it’s all the more important that we don’t renounce him by ourselves but live and act in the spirit of his legacy, President Zuzana Caputova stated in her speech during celebrations to mark the 140th anniversary of the birth of General Milan Rastislav Stefanik in Kosariska (Trencin region) on Tuesday, July 21.

According to the president, even today we very much need Stefanik’s clairvoyance “so that we don’t overlook our historical opportunities” and his will to sacrifice in order to fulfil them. “And more often we also need to be reminded of how he understood democracy – as a duty to think before doing something about whether, as he said, by your action ‘you aren’t harming your neighbour, nation, society. This means to take control of your passions, not to talk but to solve problems’,” she said.

“Milan Rastislav Stefanik meets all the definitions and criteria according to which a great historical figure is known,” stated the president, pointing out how a “talented boy from Kosariska” overcame the poor conditions thanks to the fact that he added to his extraordinary talent “an inexhaustible effort to break through” to education, science and the highest spiritual achievements of his time.

“Even if Milan Rastislav Stefanik was known only for what he achieved as an astronomer, inventor, photographer, meteorologist, traveller, aviator and soldier, he would still be one of the greats of the Slovak nation and we would talk about him as a phenomenal man,” she said, noting that the current public perceives Stefanik to be the greatest Slovak.

In her speech, the president also emphasized Stefanik’s role in the formation of Czechoslovakia. During the war, the scientist became a politician and diplomat who after three years was a general of the French army and a figure in the highest social circles. “It was he who opened the doors of the Paris salons for Tomas Garrigue Masaryk and Eduard Benes so that they could look for support for the setting up of Czechoslovakia,” she said.

ANALYSTS: SECOND UNEMPLOYMENT SPIKE EXPECTED IN AUTUMN

The rise in registered unemployment rate in Slovakia slowed down in June, but could pick up its pace throughout the summer or in the autumn, when people terminated from larger companies are likely to wind up in the job centre statistics, think analysts.

The June stats posed a pleasant surprise to the analysts. “Our expectations of the job centres registering a significant influx of the unemployed, who lost their jobs early in the outbreak and their severance period just expired didn’t come true,” stated UniCredit Bank Czech Republic and Slovakia analyst Lubomir Korsnak.

With the receding outbreak, unemployment figures could see an improvement also by virtue of thereviving labour market, which, unlike in the preceding two months, has become more able to absorb a portion of the unemployed.

“It was mostly people in industry, services and retail who lost their jobs,” added Slovenska Sporitelna analyst Katarina Muchova. She pointed out that almost 20 percent of the unemployed in June were secondary school and university graduates.

The analysts expect the unemployment to grow in the following months, albeit only slightly. The first wave is estimated to appear in September after graduates join the labour market and the second spike might occur later in the autumn, when some larger companies, which have yet managed to postpone lay-offs by using their savings, trim down their staffs.

The unemployment could thus stand at 9-10 percent at the turn of the year, but is likely to start declining afterwards in the wake of the economy heating up.

KUCIAK’S MURDER TRIAL: THE FINAL VERDICTS UNEXPECTEDLY POSTPONED

The date of verdict against those accused of murdering Slovak journalist Jan Kuciak and his fiancée Martina Kusnirova. The date was originally set for August 6. Slovak Special Criminal Court unexpectedly postponed its final hearing with the suspected mastermind of the murder Marian Kocner. Presiding judge Ruzena Sabova announced today that the jury needs a couple of more weeks to assess their decision.

The final hearing with the accused is scheduled for September 3.

Jan Kuciak was an investigative journalist working for Slovak news outlet Aktuality.sk. He was uncovering corruption scandals of Slovak businessmen who had been tied with politicians. One of these businessmen was Slovak mobster Marian Kocner.

Kuciak was just 27 when he was killed on 21st February 2018 at his home in Slovak villages Velka Maca located outside Bratislava. The shooter also killed his fiancée Martina Kusnirova, who worked as an archeologist and was also only 27 years old. The couple was about to get married later that year.

SLOVAKIA SENDING HUMANITARIAN AID TO LEBANON

Slovakia is sending humanitarian aid in the form of food and medical supplies to Beirut following the deadly explosion there beginning of August. In addition, the Slovak Foreign Affairs Ministry will donate financial aid.

“I’m glad that we can send this aid today to people who need it in Beirut at the moment and that we were able to prepare, in cooperation with other ministries and NGOs, humanitarian aid that I believe will help the people of Beirut,” said Interior Minister Roman Mikulec (OLaNO).
The package includes medicine and special medical supplies needed by the Lebanese. This includes, for example, painkillers, infusion solutions and bandages.

"I’m pleased that Slovakia is sympathetic, expressing fellowship via this humanitarian aid package,” said Foreign Affairs Ministry State Secretary Ingrid Brockova. She noted that the financial aid will head to the Lebanese Humanitarian Fund in order to provide the immediate health care the country needs. Slovakia will also continue to be engaged in several humanitarian projects, added Brockova.

Lebanese Ambassador in Vienna Ibrahim Assaf thanked the Slovak Government and the country for the aid, stressing how urgently needed it is, especially because many hospitals have been destroyed and many doctors injured. He described the assistance from Slovakia as further evidence of friendship between the two countries.

The interior minister noted that the aid for Beirut is the ninth such package provided this year to countries that have asked for it. Mikulec didn’t rule out additional aid for Lebanon if this is requested and it is within Slovakia’s capabilities.

The explosion in Beirut claimed over 160 lives and injured over 6,000 people.

EMPLOYEES FROM HIGH-RISK COUNTRIES WILL HAVE TO SHOW NEGATIVE

Employers will probably be obliged to prevent employees who come from high-risk countries from entering all their premises and workplaces if they fail to show a negative PCR test for COVID-19 and confirmation that they have registered with the relevant regional public health authority, said Slovakia’s chief hygienist Jan Mikas following an expert consilium session at the Government Office on August 13.

Mikas noted that large firms and employers have been called on to update their pandemic plans and prepare for an increased number of employees infected by coronavirus. "This is because people often come to these companies from high-risk countries, bring the infection into a collective, into a firm, and then we have an enormous increase in the number of positive cases here," stated Mikas.

Mikas said that this measure is mainly in the interest of firms, but talks with employers concerning the move are yet to be held.

MATOVIC: PUPILS SHOULD WEAR FACE MASKS IN CLASS FOR FIRST TWO WEEKS

Prime Minister Igor Matovic, writing on a social network stated that he proposed at an ongoing expert consilium that pupils should be obliged to wear face masks in class for the first two weeks at school after the summer holiday.

"I know it won’t be very pleasant, but it’s an extremely important measure. The theory that children don’t transmit COVID-19 is far from being confirmed," stated the prime minister.

The temporary wearing of face masks in classrooms should serve as a preventive measure in cases in which parents have been irresponsible, concealing the fact that they’ve visited a high-risk country, thereby putting other pupils at a school in danger. "Unfortunately, the president [Zuzana Caputova] vetoed a law that would have enabled us to identify the irresponsible ones," stated Matovic, referring to vetoed legislation on electronic communications that would have enabled the Public Health Office to obtain the phone numbers of people who have visited ‘red’ countries from operators.

The Mojmírovce Mansion is situated in the Nitra region in the village of Mojmírovce. The first written reference to a former town with rich history dates back to 1156. The history of the mansion started after the end of the Ottoman wars in the period when refugees returned back to villages — original inhabitants as well as new settlers. In 1721, the Hunyadis built a large mansion in Baroque style, later on, after a fire, the mansion was rebuilt in the Classicist style. There used to be a botanical garden called a “glass-house” which was part of the mansion, however, it does not exist any longer. The Hunyadis were proud of a big horse-breeding farm where they bred thoroughbred breeds of Arabian, Spanish and Italian horses. The success of the horse-breeding was an incentive for organizing public horse racing which took place at the Hunyadi estate in 1814. It was to become historically the first horse-racing event in the then Hungarian Kingdom. After several reconstructions, the mansion and the former Žrebcín (horse-breeding farm) were turned into a modern hotel and congress facility with comprehensive tourist services. The Baroque—Classicist mansion in Mojmírovce is not only a significant monument, but also a cultural, tourist and education center of the Nitra region.

Tour from Bratislava on Wine Route to ‘Slovak Rome’

The Small Carpathian Mountains provide a picturesque backdrop for Slovakia’s capital Bratislava, with 3,000-year-long winegrowing traditions flourishing on their southeastern slopes, mainly in the Bratislava borough of Raca, in the towns of Svaty Jur, Pezinok and Modra, and in other villages including Vinosady and Limbach. More than two dozen towns and villages now make up the Small Carpathian Wine Route.

Wine has been produced on the slopes of the Small Carpathian Mountains by the Celts, Romans, local Slovaks and, later in the Middle Ages, also by migrants from Italy, Austria and Bavaria.

SVATY JUR: This small town close to Bratislava boasts two churches – Saint George’s and Holy Trinity – the remnants of a fortified settlement called Nestich, dating back to the late first-millennium Slavic empire now known as Great Moravia, and the marshy Jursky Sur nature reserve.

PEZINOK: With a history dating back to 1208 as Terra Bozin, Pezinok features a vintage centre with a promenade resembling those usually seen at seaside resorts. It has rich wine and mining traditions, both on display in local museums, and wine cellars. The Pezinska Baba ski resort is located in the mountains above Pezinok. The wine village of Limbach nestles on the nearby slopes of the Small Carpathian Mountains.

MODRA: The town with the largest acreage of vineyards in the area. The centre of Modra is dominated by a statue of Ludovit Stur, a 19th-century national revivalist and codifier of the Slovak language. It was in Modra where Stur accidentally shot himself in the leg during a hunt before Christmas 1855 and died as a consequence of the injury three weeks later. The town is also known for its unusual ceramics, which have been produced there since prehistoric times.

CERVENY KAMEN CASTLE: This 13th-century castle towering above the village of Casta attracts tourists, offering them an excellent view and the chance to sit down and relax for a while in its courtyard and adjacent meadows.

TRNAVA: Has been nicknamed the ‘Slovak Rome’ since it became the seat of Hungary’s primate and the centre of Catholic life in Royal Hungary following the Ottoman occupation of much of the kingdom in the 16th and 17th centuries. A Baroque sculpture of the Holy Trinity and a Renaissance City Tower built in 1574 are the two main features of the central Holy Trinity Square. The monumental Saint John the Baptist Cathedral, which was constructed in 1640, was the first early Baroque building in Slovakia with an original wooden altar. Even older are the Gothic Saint Nicholas Basilica (built between 1380-1421), called the ‘Thick Church’ by the locals, the Assumption Church and Saint Helen’s Church. – (TASR)
JOHN A. HOLY, SLOVAK CULTURAL ACTIVIST, LAID TO REST AT 98

John Alois Holy passed away peacefully in his sleep at his home in Pompton Plains, N.J. during the early morning of July 24. He was 98. He was a well-known Slovak cultural and fraternal activist.

A native of Nova Bana, a gold mining town in western Slovakia, he was born there February 8, 1922.

In March 1939, he left home to begin his university studies in the Slovak capital of Bratislava. Germany had occupied the Sudentenland the prior September and Hitler proclaimed the puppet "Protectorate of Bohemia and Moravia, as John unpacked.

He graduated with a writing degree in 1944, just as the Germans defeated a Czechoslovak uprising. Months later, the armies of the Soviet Union marched through his homeland and John got his first personal glimpse of his lifelong nemesis: totalitarianism.

John went to work for a national newspaper and became a prominent anti-communist journalist. In 1947, a member of the Czechoslovak underground implicated John as a fellow member in order to receive leniency at the hands of the Soviets. John was taken from his bed at 5 a.m. on a cold November morning in 1947 and imprisoned for three months.

While in prison, he began to contemplate a better life in the West, and to study English by reading books. His brother was able to secure John's release just before the Czechoslovak Communist party took complete control of the government. With his arraignment pending, John fled to the West. On the night of May 1, 1948, he and two other men dodged patrols and crossed the Morava River under the cover of darkness.

Fifteen months later, in September 1949, he landed in Boston. He traveled to Great Falls, Mont. to earn his visa. He worked odd jobs until 1952 when he began his employment at the Slovak Catholic Sokol in Passaic, N.J. as editor of its official publication. He later would return to the Sokol to serve as underwriter until his retirement.

At this time, John met Nina Frissikova at a social event at St. John Nepomucene Parish in New York City. On June 13, 1953 the couple exchanged marriage vows at St. John Nepomucene Parish in New York City. On August 1, 1953 the Supreme Assembly was represented by Supreme Secretary Scott T. Pogorelec, F.I.C. Interment followed in Basking Ridge, N.J.

John was an individual dedicated to the high ideals of the Slovak cultural and fraternal community. His was a life fully lived. He will be sorely missed. To his beloved wife, Nina and his children, grandchildren and great-grandchildren, we extend our sympathy. May he rest in peace. Zdar Boh!

„Zákon ustanovuje výnimky, ktoré môžu sa vztahovať na občanov Českej republiky pre blízkosť jazykov alebo vedeckých oblastí,“ priblížil riaditeľ odboru štátneho občianstva na MV SR Peter Drábek. Ako dôkaz tohoto tvrdenia povedal, že v roku 2019 nadobudnúť cudzie štátne občianstvo mohlo až 2500 osôb, pričom 300 z nich vychádzali z Českej republiky.

Na území SR by mohli od októbra počítať aj prvé muži a ženy z rôznych krajín. Tých sa môže niekoľko tisíc, pretože v roku 2019 sa v Žilinskom kraji prijalo cudzie štátne občianstvo len 14 mužov.
