MORE THAN A CENTURY OF SERVICE

Fraternal benefit societies are 501(c)(8) not-for-profit financial services and community service organizations. For more than 100 years, fraternal benefit societies have played a unique role in communities across the United States. Fraternal benefit societies are a different kind of life insurance provider, securing members' futures through reliable financial service offerings, and giving back to their local communities through meaningful volunteer and charitable activities.

DEDICATED TO THEIR COMMUNITIES

"When fraternal members gather together to help others, volunteer to improve the lives of children and families, or carry out any of their myriad activities, they generate social capital that benefits both individuals and communities as a whole."

Swagel: Economic Contributions of Fraternal Benefit Societies: A Five Year Perspective, Phillip Swagel, Professor at the University of Maryland School of Public Policy. (2014).
